

Good News from Beormund

September 2014

Rutherford's Atoms:

Jonathan: For having a great start to a new term in a new class.

Shaydon: For excellent work and completing a Roald Dahl biography.

Issa: For good team work and showing leadership skills.

Michael O: For being enthusiastic about his homework.

Jonathan: For using -ly words in his writing to make it more interesting.

Miles, Issa, Jonathan & Michael O: For excellent speaking, listening and writing in French.

Watt's my name:

Deshaun: For settling in well in his new school.

Immanuel: For trying hard in lessons and taking part.

Davarnie: For great work in Literacy.

Chiderah: For a fantastic week.

Jemison's Geniuses:

Michael M: For thinking about his class team and showing consideration.

Dan: For repeated kindness towards his classmates.

Don: For having an outstanding attitude while on a trip to the science museum.

Cole & Michael M: For taking responsibility for their actions.

The Teslas:

Jimmy: For settling in wonderfully.

Liam: For an excellent start to the year, helping others when they are upset.

Lynden: For great work in Literacy creating a scene from a Roald Dahl story.

Louie: For amazing work in Numeracy and attempting difficult questions.

The Einsteins:

Keon: For trying really hard and stretching himself in expressive writing.

George: For outstanding cooking and support.

Amari: for having a good attitude towards his learning.

George: For great effort in Numeracy.

Newton's Force:

Jake: For completing all his basics independently.

Rui: For great enthusiasm and improved handwriting.

Josh: For improved handwriting and excellent work in Phonics.

Chase: For his amazing progress in Numeracy.

We have started this new school year with a brand new kitchen where our healthy lunches are freshly prepared on site. We are all happy and so are our tummies!