

Monthly Good News from Beormund

November 2014

Rutherford's Atoms

- Danny: For good attendance and working hard in lessons all week.
- Michael O: For coping well with a new member of staff in class and working well.
- Issa: For writing a biography on Yuri Gagarin using time connectives and paragraphs.
- Miles: For beginning to cope with disappointment and learning to play games with other children.

Jemison's Geniuses

- Michael M: For improving his standards of behaviour in and out of school.
- Michael M: For perseverance in Maths.
- Dan: For using numicon to make his own sums and patterns in numeracy.
- Michael M: For being helpful to others and putting the needs of others first.

Watt's My Name

- Davarnie : For producing excellent work in all lessons.
- Chiderah: For being successful in applying to become a Library Assistant.
- Davarnie: For being successful in applying to become a Library Assistant.
- Immanuel: For handing in homework every week and asking an adult for help when he needs it.
- Abdullah: For being helpful, encouraging others to learn about his faith and spending his own time to work on his display.

The Teslas

- Shane: For producing excellent work in Art and ICT on Bonfire night.
- Jimmy: For taking his time and using finger spaces in his writing.
- Liam: For making superb progress in phonics.
- Lynden: For writing and recording two newspaper reports.

Newton's Force

- Chase: For trying his best at handwriting.
- Josh: For reading at home everyday.
- Jake: For being successful in his application to become a Library Assistant.
- Rui: For making progress in his writing; learning to use capital letters and full stops in the right places.
- Ty: For progress in phonics and reading.

The Einsteins

- Amari: For being able to master being in control of himself.
- Keon: For excellent use of time connectives in his writing.
- George: For using his imagination to write about a work of art.
- Amari: For accepting consequences and having an understanding of his behaviour.

Headteacher's Awards

Rutherford's Atoms

- Miles: For keeping his calm and beginning to control his temper.
- Shaydon: For enthusiasm and improvement in writing.
- Danny: For fantastic behaviour, improved attendance and being focussed & hard-working in class.
- Jonathan: For being mature during his mainstream experience.

The Einsteins

- Wesley: For accepting responsibility for his actions.
- Amari: For perseverance and staying on task.
- Wesley: For bringing in his homework consistently and completing it to a high standard.

Christmas Crackers:

Josh, Michael and Don

Watt's My Name

- Immanuel : For meeting his target to listen and focus in class.
- Davarnie: For doing his best to follow the school rules.
- Nyran: For starting to meet his target of being polite to others at all times.
- Chiderah: For having great focus in class.

The Teslas

- Liam: For working on controlling his frustrations and communicating this with adults.
- Zak: For working on coping with disappointment.
- Shane: For beginning to accept sanctions and to take some responsibility for his own actions.
- Jimmy: For having a great attitude to his learning and behaviour.

Newton's Force

- Josh: For making a real effort to meet his behaviour targets.
- Chase: For showing kindness and being a delight all week.
- Foday: For supporting his peers with helpful, positive comments.

Jemison's Geniuses

- Dan: For achieving 100 shillings in a day.
- Don: For patience, tolerance and voluntary work.
- Michael M: For being determined to meet his targets.
- Cole: For being determined to get a 100 shilling day.

Stars of the month:

Miles, Davarnie, Nyran and Jonathan

