

Good News from Beormund

Rutherford's Atoms

Shaydon: For writing a brilliant balanced argument

Jonathan: For good sportsmanship and working as a team

Shaydon: For being able to turn his behaviour around

Issa: For participating well in class and writing a fantastic poem

Michael O: For working hard in Literacy and Numeracy

Watt's My Name

Israel: For an excellent Haiku poem

Abdullah: For working hard on a powerpoint presentation on sharks

Jake: For a fantastic advert

Davarnie: For being focused in class and having a polite attitude to staff and learning

Abdullah: For helping his classmates calm down and being responsible on a class trip

Newton's Force

Rui: For his excellent work on instructional texts

Rui: For being polite and respectful to everyone and following adult instructions

Munheem: For great progress in his phonics screening

Touss: For working hard on his phonics

The Einsteins

George: For improvement in concentration

Keon: For managing his behaviour and calming down quickly

Amari: For taking responsibility for his own actions

Archie: For improved behaviour in class and a positive attitude to staff and learning

Wesley: For staying in the classroom even when frustrated

The Teslas

Liam: For fantastic writing

Lynden: For improvement in reading

Liam: For showing amazing manners and patience on a class trip to the park

Charlie: For improved behaviour in class

Ashley: For overcoming frustrations in Numeracy

Jemison's Geniuses

Cole: For trying his best during basics

Michael M: For giving a fantastic speech during Don's leaving assembly

Dan: For looking after school resources

Wishing you all a lovely Summer Holiday from all of us at Beormund school and looking forward to seeing you in the new term on Thursday 3rd September

